

The Rod and Gun Club of New Bedford, Inc.

*Sportsman of The Year
2018*

This nominee has been a member for 22 years and is now a life member. He is a member of the NRA and GOAL. His firm belief in the purpose and efforts of Ducks Unlimited prompted him to also become a supporting member of this important trustee of land reservations. He currently serves on the Board of Directors and is co-chairman of the membership committee. More than once he has risen to the call to help fill the gap for the membership committee during times of great need. He is a certified, volunteer, Hunter Safety Instructor for the Department of Fisheries and Wildlife. He has organized and taught Hunter Safety courses at the club, helping students to more easily obtain a Firearms Identification (FID) card, while encouraging participation in the hunting and shooting sports. This nominee is also a certified NRA and State Police instructor and has assisted with License to Carry (LTC) classes, providing individualized hands-on training both at the club and in the field. This member believes strongly in paying forward; in this case, an obligation to encourage the next generations to engage and participate in the hunting and shooting sports. It is for his supportive spirit and his passion for the education of this and future generations that we nominate David Hague as our Sportsman of the Year for 2018.
